INCIDENT UPDATE REPORT #6

HAZARDOUS WEATHER OUTLOOK

Temperatures will fall rapidly after sunset tonight, refreezing any residual snow and ice melt during the evening hours tonight. Although the winds will gradually become light over most of the area tonight, winds across far southeast Alabama will cause wind chill temperatures to fall into the single digits. Otherwise, low temperatures tonight will range from near 10 in colder locations of North Alabama to the upper teens in South Alabama. Temperatures are expected to warm above freezing statewide by noon Thursday. A warming trend will continue into the weekend.

CURRENT STATE ACTIONS

ALDOT, ALEA, and ALNG: Mobility Support Teams (MST) have been positioned in Montgomery and Opelika to provide emergency traffic clearance, assist stranded motorists, and conduct presence patrols in Division D.

NWS: Civil Emergency Messages have been issued for (16) counties due to hazardous travel conditions.

ALVOAD: Salvation Army's homeless shelters are open for the HOMELESS population in Anniston, Birmingham, Decatur, Dothan, Florence, Gadsden, Huntsville, Mobile, Montgomery and Tuscaloosa.

State Government Offices: Closed 1/17/18 and delayed opening on 1/18/18.

STATE ROAD CONDITIONS

Traffic is detoured around the Delta (General W.K Wilson Jr.) bridge due to icy road conditions in Division A.
